11. James Madison Montgomery, son of John Montgomery (4 May 1775-2 Jan 1856) & Margaret Alexander (abt 1776-18 Mar 1851). Born on 28 Oct 1810 in Maury County, Tennessee. James Madison died in Moulton, Lawrence County Alabama, on 17 Apr 1891; he was 80. Buried in Montgomery Cemetery, Wren, Alabama.

Listed in the Lawrence county land and census records. The Taylor Book says that the son of John and Margaret was a "James Matthew". From the Death Certificate of his son, Robert Craig, James' middle name was Madison.

The fact that James Madison was the son of John and Margaret is documented from a newspaper article describing his moving with his father to Lawrence County Alabama. Article was July 10, 1890, "Moulton Advertiser". James was also recorded as a member of the Old Prospect Church. The article said that he marries Susan a resident of Limestone County after a short courtship and moved to Lawrence County Alabama. The Robert C. Montgomery Bible (in possession of John R. Montgomery) and the reference to the James M. Montgomery Bible (location unknown) as referenced by Taylor and the Robert Craig Montgomery death certificate establish this relationship.
