1. John Montgomery. Born abt 1717 in Ulster, Ireland.

John left Pennsylvania and settled in Augusta County Virginia in 1747 in the Burden Tract (Deed Book 1, page 361, Augusta County Virginia (8/20/1747) They lived there until 1779 or later when they sold land to their oldest son, James. According to the John and Esther Montgomery 1719-1973 publication, there is no other record known of John and Esther Montgomery after this date.

They were married by Rev. Johann C., Stoever, Jr. (source Historical Society, Lancaster, PA.)

John Montgomery and John Houston were active in the early Timber Ridge and Providence churches . (page 28, John and Esther Montgomery 1719-1973)

Several sources indicate that the order of birth of the children are not known. Year of birth does not check out with all source material. Esther was born in the 1720 time frame. It is highly unlikely that she was having children past 1760. It is also unusual for them to not have had their children between 1738 and 1760.

They had the following children:

The minister who performed the marriage of John and Margaret was Gideon Blackburn of Blount, TN. There was a marriage bond posted in Jefferson County, TN. The bondsman was Margaret's father, James Alexander. January 24, 1799.

The death date is based on the Old Prospect Church minutes. Due to the age of the markers and vandalism, the grave marker could not be located.
